7 WHEREAS, Uncounted, save by the gray hairs in his head,
8 the years of one of our most worthy colleagues will have increased 9 by one when the date of June 24, 1972, rolls around; then the 10 estimable Member from Kerr County, the Honorable James E. Nugent, 11 will celebrate his birthday; and

12 WHEREAS, This hard-hitting "honcho" of the Rules Committee, 13 whose heavy hammer works to the very end of the day--even to the 14 extent of holding six meetings on the last day of a session and 15 convening the committee at 11:45 p.m. in the face of an already-16 passed midnight sine die resolution--is well known in political 17 circles, including those in this House, for his dedication to 18 purpose; of course, some might identify this trait as hard-19 headedness, if of an ungenerous disposition; and

20 WHEREAS, This distinguished and erudite lawmaker has other 21 attributes which have served him well in his legislative role: he 22 makes quick, if unshakable, decisions; his mind goes to the root 23 of any problem; acute in discernment himself, he has little 24 patience with apparent dullness in others; and

25 WHEREAS, Next to God and Country, he places the Texas
26 Constitution, and woe to any man who tries to avoid or evade its 27 mandates; so conscientious is this clever, canny, courageous
28 conservator of the Constitution, that never during his 11 years
29 of service in the Texas House of Representatives has he been 30 known to vote to suspend the Constitutional Rule; and

31 WHEREAS, Away from the crush of Capitol and legislative 32 logic, he is known as the devilish darling of the deer- (spelled 33 with two e's) hunting contingency; he is also the fleetest,
34 fastest, and most formidable flyboy west of the Balcones Fault; 35 and

36 WHEREAS, With all these virtues, it is no wonder that he 37 has a beautiful wife, Billie, and an equally gorgeous daughter, 38 Nan, as well as a handsome son, Skip; and

39 WHEREAS, It is appropriate that the House of Representatives
40 of the State of Texas take this opportunity to extend 41 congratulations to Jim Nugent and to join his wife and children
42 in the celebration of his birthday; now, therefore, be it

43 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 44 62nd Legislature, 3rd Called Session, extend greetings and good 45 wishes to Jim Nugent today for the actual celebration of his 46 birthday on Saturday, June 24, 1972; and, be it further

47 RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for 48 him, under the Seal of the House of Representatives, as an 49 expression of the high regard which Members of this House have 50 for him and his fine family.
